

Cavalla International University

Academic Calendar 2024 -2025

Cavalla International University of America and Liberia has an open enrollment system, which allows the university to enroll students monthly. Once applications, along with the supporting documents, are received by the admissions office, they are evaluated and processed within two weeks. Thereafter, students are informed about their enrollment status. Students who meet the enrollment requirements satisfactorily will be informed to start classes during the beginning or middle of the month from the date of the admissions letter. For example, students that are admitted in February may begin attending classes in March.

The university has two semesters' systems. The Accelerated Option – 8 weeks semester and the Standard Semester Option – 12 weeks semester. Doctoral Students are not permitted to enroll in the accelerated option semesters. However, doctoral students can enroll in 4 standards semesters in a year. The academic calendar starts in the fall and runs throughout the year. General information is below:

Semester Exams

The university has two exam systems – midterm exams and the final exams. The mid-term exams are generally administered during the middle of the semester and the final exams are administered around the end of each semester.

Graduating Students

Students who expect to graduate during the 2025 academic year must confirm with their academic advisers, the registrar's office, and finance office to see if all requirements are met. All students expecting to graduate must complete and submit the application for graduation form by May 15, 2025. Note: Students academic credentials will be placed on hold until all obligations to the university are met, including financial obligation.

Graduating Ceremony

The graduation ceremony will be held on June 27, 2025. The university will have a virtual ceremony; but expect to invite graduating students of 2024 to join the graduating class of 2025 to a physical graduation ceremony in 2025.

Note: Master's and Doctoral candidates are encouraged to contact their advisors for the oral defense of their thesis and dissertations. Please make sure that all research projects have been submitted, and that the thesis or dissertations are complete and submitted by the middle of May. It is important for students to make sure of the availability of their advisors to schedule a date for their defense.

Application for Graduation

The application for graduation begins on March 1, 2025.
